Marriage of Thomas J Miller and Mil Clara C. Bastian-McCleery-Poule -Thornell-Boyle,

The Pittsburg Times of August 2: contained the following account of the wedding of Thomas J. Miller, o' Braddeck, a brother of Landlord John T. Miller, of Mann's Choice, and Miss Clara C Bastian, of Lawrenceville:

"One of yesterday's brilliant affairs was the marriage of Miss Clara Clementina Bastian, of Lawrenceville, and Thomas J. Miller, of Braddeck. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in St. Augustine's Roman Catholic church, Lawrenceville, by Rev. Father Jeseph, provincial, O. M. Cap., assisted by Rev. Father Steppling and Rev. Father Augustine. It was a brillian wedding. The church was magnificentiy decorated with palms and tropical foliage, and there was a special electric lighting. A nuptial high mass was sung under the direction of Prof. Bessell. The bride wore a superb costume of white creps meteor, beautifully feshioned and trimmed, and usecried a ciuster of Marechal Niel roses. The church was filled with a large audience and the affair was one of the and Westmoreland counties, this state. largest of the season. A wedding breakfast, served at the home of the carried out at the meeting held terday afternoon there was an informal reception. There were handsome decorations at the Bastian home, tables had clusters of white blossoms and candles with pink floral shades. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Miller left street, Lawrenceville. Both young folks are popular and well known and they received a fine collection of handsome articles as remembrances from their friends. The oride is the daughter of Gustave Bastian, superintendent of the Keystone Bridge company's works. She is a graduate of the Curry Conservatory of Music, class of '99, in both the vocal and instrumental departments, and in the annual contest in 03 she secured the Mellor gold medal for exceptional attainments. She is well known in musical circles. The groom is an electrician in the employ of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company and has a large acquaintance in Braddock, where he has been making his home, as well as in Lawrence-

Mr. and Mrs. McCleary are spending their honeymoon at Sulphur Springs and will visit Redford before they re turn to the Capital City.

Thornell-Doyle.

A pretty romance culminated at Bed ford on Tuesday, when, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Ernest A. Thornell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Catharine T. Doyle, of Montpelier, Vt., were united in marriage by Rev. George Leidy. The bride and groom met and fell in love at Lakewood, N J, where the former was filling an engagement as a waitress and the latter playing in the orchestra at that place. Both subsequently were employed at Summit, N. J., and this sumner came to Bedford Springs, where the clever Cupids who make this romantic resort their abiding place fanned the flame until it burned se fiercely that the "affair" was brough to a happy climax. STRONG TICKET minated by the Democracy of Penns vania-Press-Muzzler Denounced. In a strikingly harmonious and business-like convention the Democrats of Pennsylvania met at Harrisburg on Wednesday and nominated the following excellent ticket:

For State Treasurer-Senator Joel G. Hill, of Wayne county. For Auditor General-Senator Arthur G Dewalt, of Lebigh county. For Judge of the Supreme Court-

John A. Ward, of Philadelphia, and Calvin Rayburn, of Armstrong county. The resolutions adopted by the convention strongly denounce the pressmuzzler, the Pennypacker administration and the misdemeaners of the Rapublican majority in the last legislature. The Republican organization is arraigned for failure to keep its promises to the people, particularly in its refusal to enact a reformatory ballot law. The resolutions also condemn the nanagement of the state's finances. Smouse Rounlon-The Altoona Times of August 2 gives the following report of the Smouse reunion: "The seventh an nual reunion of the Smouse Family association was held at Lakemont Imgrunt, assisted by Prof. Simcon park yesterday. Get a be VIIV much more careful regarding what he puts in his stomach than most people in order to I cep his weight down and from acquiring a superfluity of flash but he certainly does not starve himself as is generally supposed. If he did so he would break down entirely in a very short time A jockey mus also be in the best possible physical trim and have his wits about him be fore a race and to attain that he must be careful how he uses his constitution There are two year important things a jockey has to consuler in studying his dietary He must see to it that his food is of the best quality and that it con tains practically no flesh forming prop erties All such fattening foods as, fo instance soups beef pork potatoes puddings and pistries a jockey mus deny himself Coffee tea or other drinks are only taken very moderately as all liquids help more or less in put ting on fiesh Although a jockey has to escher such foods there are many other varie ties which he gets just as much pleas ure in eating and which at the same time are equally as good and strength ening for his constitution. A few days before a rice r jockey who has a great military posts of ancient Rome mount in it will not stint bluself-pro now covered by a modern city also a vided le his no fen of overtipping gatrison and Sucssola whose medici his proper weight for the race-in any thing which he thinks will not inter gouts epicures of the Roman time face with his d gestive app natus Some jockeys of course take throes around that laboring monster and lose flesh quicker than others I have known one or two who were par ies which were great scaports 2000
